

- Overview and History:
 - Official Name: Royal University of Phnom Penh (RUPP)
 - Location: Phnom Penh, Cambodia
 - RUPP is one of the oldest and largest universities in Cambodia, offering a wide range of disciplines.
- Academic Programs:
 - RUPP has a diverse range of faculties and departments.
 - Faculties/Common Program Areas:
 - Sciences
 - Social Sciences and Humanities
 - Engineering
 - Languages
 - Information Technology
 - It is important to check the RUPP website for the specific departments and the degrees offered within those faculties.
- Admission Requirements:
 - Admission requirements vary significantly depending on the specific faculty and program.
 - General Requirement: Completion of upper secondary education (high school) or equivalent.
 - Specific programs may have additional requirements such as:
 - Entrance examinations
 - Specific subject prerequisites
 - Certain grade requirements
 - It is crucial to consult the RUPP website or admissions office for details on specific programs.
- Tuition and Fees:
 - Tuition fees at RUPP can vary depending on the faculty, program, and student status.
 - Information on specific tuition fees and any other associated costs should be available on the RUPP website or from their finance/admissions office.
 - Scholarship and financial aid opportunities may also be detailed on their website.
- Research and Innovation:
 - RUPP is involved in research activities across its various faculties.
 - Information on research focus areas, projects, and publications can be found on the RUPP website, particularly within faculty or department pages.
- Student Life:
 - RUPP, as a major university, likely provides a range of student facilities and services.
 - These generally include:
 - Libraries
 - Sports facilities
 - Student support services
 - Details on student organizations, activities, and accommodation (if available) should be searchable on the RUPP website.
- International Relations:

- RUPP may have collaborations with international universities and organizations.
- Information about international partnerships, exchange programs, and support for international students can usually be found on the university's website.

Where to Find More Precise RUPP Information:

- Official RUPP Website: This is the primary source. Look for sections like:
 - "Faculties" or "Departments"
 - "Admissions"
 - "Research"
 - "About RUPP"